

Individual Income Tax Return

Instructions & Guidelines

Who needs to submit this return?

1. Any individual who earned an income in Guyana or derived income from Guyana must report that income using this return. Where the employment or office is exercised in Guyana, tax is charged on the total amount of the income whether received in Guyana or not.
2. In the case of residents, income from outside of Guyana must also be reported. In the case of earned income which arises outside of Guyana to a person who is not ordinarily resident or not domiciled in Guyana, the tax is payable on the amount received in Guyana.
3. Every individual whose income is in excess of the applicable yearly threshold (see figures below) is required to file a return, unless the income is subject to withholding tax.
4. If there was any loss prior to the current Year of Income which resulted in the Individual being entitled to claim a deduction in the following Year of Income, a return must be submitted.

When and Where does this return need to be submitted?

5. The due date for submitting this return is 30th April of each year (or the next business day if the 30th is a holiday). Nevertheless, you are encouraged to file as early as possible.
6. This return must be submitted to the Commissioner General, Guyana Revenue Authority at one of GRA's offices or sites or P.O. Box 10406.

How to fill this Return

7. The Return and all required supporting documents must be submitted. All spaces in the form should be completed. Where a line item is not applicable, you should write None, a -, or 0 if the item is a numeric field. Failure to do so could result in any enquiry and delay in the processing of your return.
8. The Declaration section must be filled out and Return signed.
